Friday Dec 19th there will be a Christmas book/puzzle sale. Hot chocolate and cookies will be served from 2:00-4:00 pm. Come for an afternoon of Christmas cheer!

Calendars will be ready for pick up mid December

Winter Snow Removal:

The Village reminds residents to remove their campers, trailers and extra vehicles from the streets and back alleys to help facilitate the removal of ice and snow in a timely manner during the winter months.

If you have a sidewalk by your property, it would be appreciated if you would keep your sidewalk clear of ice and snow to make it safe for residents to walk

Water Lines Freezing:

It is the responsibility of each Village resident to ensure that they are using enough water to prevent water lines from freezing. If you are away from home for any period of time, have someone check your home and turn on taps and run the water for a short period of time.

The Village will not thaw out water lines.

Feist Flanagan Law

Robert Feist J.D.,B.A will be available for appointments at the Village office the 1st and 3rd Friday of each month.

Contact the Village office to schedule an appointment.

Pet Owners:

- License your Dog
- Pick up after your pet. Dog & Cat waste is a health and environmental hazard
- Don't let you dogs/cats roam onto other peoples property

Dog License Fees: All dogs in the Village are required to have a license.

-$35 for a new dog licence.

-$35 for renewal Jan 1 - Feb 28. After Feb 28 renewal fee is $40.00.

Dog Bylaw #02/2016 can be found on the Village website under "Governance."

CATS: The Village does not have a Cat Bylaw. They don't require a license.

Development/Building Permits:

Does your next construction project require a permit?

Many common improvements to your property may require a permit:

- New builds (Fence, shed, garage or dwelling)
- Demolitions, repairs or alterations to an existing structure
- Moving structures on or off your property

All applicable permits are to be in place before any work has been started.

For more information on permits and fees contact the Village Office.

2025 Property Tax Reminder:

December 31 is the deadline for payment without a penalty for your 2025 property tax.

On January 1, 2026 a 10% penalty will be applied to all outstanding taxes.

Property Tax & Water Bill Payment Options:

The Village offers multiple payment options to assist residents in paying their taxes and water bills in a timely manner.

Payment Options include:

- In office cash, cheque or debit
 - Synergy Credit Union online banking system
 - E-transfer to paradisehill@sasktel.net
 - Annual or monthly automatic debit from any bank or credit union.
- (Authorization forms are available at the Village Office)

Water Bill Email Option:

We offer residents the option to have their water bill emailed to them instead of mailed.

For more information, contact the Village Office
